

G3.2.1

Using media reports to explore different accidents

A. The newspaper cuttings below show different accidents.

Observe and discuss.

1. What type of accident is being shown?
2. What might have caused this accident?
3. List careless actions that could have led to this accident.
4. What could be affected by this fire?
5. If we had to see such an accident, whom should we inform?
6. This picture shows fire in the countryside. What could cause a household fire?
7. How can we avoid such an accident at home and/or outside?

Ms. Claire Amato

1. What is this newspaper cutting showing us?
2. What could bring about such an accident?
3. Is this a minor or a major accident?
4. How do drivers avoid such accidents?
5. What happens when such an accident happens?

Ms. Claire Amato

1. What is this picture showing us?
2. How can water be dangerous?
3. What should we do to avoid such an accident?
4. Have you ever seen health and safety workers on the beach?
5. What is their role?
6. Have you ever noticed different coloured flags on our beaches?
7. What do these flags tell us?

Ms. Claire Amato

B. Write Right or Wrong

1. Tony rode his bike without holding onto the handlebar. _____

2. Tina asked for information about the traffic lights. _____

3. John touched the electrical plug with wet hands. _____

4. Matthea left the dishcloth close to the fire. _____

5. Bert organised his room without using a safe ladder. _____

6. Sarah attended a health and safety meeting.

Ms. Claire Amato

C. Fill in with verbs in the Present Continuous

1. We (wear) _____ a safety helmet.
2. You (cross) _____ the road safely.
3. Mark (fasten) _____ his seatbelt.
4. You (follow) _____ the safety rules.
5. Silvia (walk) _____ on the pavement.
6. You (buy) _____ a safety blanket.

D. Write in the Negative

1. Martha is following the road safety rules.
Martha is not following the road safety rules.

2. Marco is working as a fire-fighter.

3. Joe is calling the policeman for help.

4. Tim is falling down the stairs.

5. Norah is wearing her safety-helmet.

7. I am crossing the road carefully.
