G3.2.5
Identifying actions that might lead to accidents

A. Observe each picture closely.

   Colour safe actions green.

   Colour unsafe actions red.

1

2

3

4
Ms. Claire Amato

B. Colour the traffic lights.

Use your scissors to cut along the outline and stick the traffic lights onto a cereal box.
C. Read each sentence and change into the feminine:

1. The boy carefully crossed the road.
   The girl carefully crossed the road.

2. Grandpa fastened his seatbelt.
   _________________________________________________________________
   _________________________________________________________________

3. Dad put on his safety-helmet before riding his bike.
   _________________________________________________________________
   _________________________________________________________________

4. My uncle held my cousin's hand while crossing the road.
   _________________________________________________________________
   _________________________________________________________________

5. My brother checked his bike's brakes before riding it to the park.
   _________________________________________________________________
   _________________________________________________________________

6. Jane's nephew drank no alcohol before driving his car.
   _________________________________________________________________
   _________________________________________________________________