

C 4.1 People Who Help Us

C4.1.3

Exploring the relationship between help and protection.

Identifying the help and/or protection we are given by different people in our locality.

A. Look at the example, then write other sentences accordingly.

	How They Protect Us	How They Help Us
The Teacher	Protects us against ignorance	Explains things which we don't understand
The Doctor 	<hr/> <hr/> <hr/>	<hr/> <hr/> <hr/>
The Policeman 	<hr/> <hr/> <hr/>	<hr/> <hr/> <hr/>
The Priest 	<hr/> <hr/> <hr/>	<hr/> <hr/> <hr/>

The Local Warden

B. Say how and where we should ask for help in the following cases.

1. You're walking home from school and when you arrive on your doorstep, you see a car which has just run over and seriously injured a girl.

---

---

---

2. Two of the street lights in your road have been out for the last two days because they're burnt out.

---

---

---

3. Today, you could not understand the last part of the Maths lesson.

---

---

---

4. I could hardly sleep last night because I had a very bad toothache.

---

---

---

5. This morning I had an appointment in Valletta with my mum and I couldn't go to school. Now I don't know what homework we have.

---

---

---

6. Up till some time ago, Jeremy was my friend. But now I don't know what's happened, he has started teasing me in class and will not leave me alone, during break he tries to make fun of me in front of my friends. I try to avoid him but he is always following me around and trying to hurt me.

---

---

---

