

C 4.2 Life in our Town or Village

C4.2.2

Organising a class library of publications issued by local groups, the parish and the Local Council.

A. Preparation

Before this lesson, under the teacher's guidance, we will make plans to build a library using local publications. These publications may be issued by the local council, groups such as the band clubs and the parish. We will use our connections to get these publications and so build this library.

B. Focusing on the lives of the people in the village

We will split into groups depending on the number of publications we have succeeded in finding. We will look for photos and writings that we like, then we will share the information with the rest of the class.

C. Building a profile of publications:

What publications did you find? List them:

D. Let us split into groups. Each group will choose a publication and build its profile using the following style:

Name of publication: _____
Group which published it: _____

Writer 1
Name a writer in the publication

Mention an article by Writer 1

Writer 2
Name a writer in the publication

Mention an article by Writer 2

Number of pages in the publication: _____
Number of pages with advertisements: _____

E. Answer these questions.

1. Why are publications important for the group which makes them?

2. If you were to write an article for a local publication, what subject would you choose to write about?
