

G 4.3 SEASONAL CHANGES

G4.3.4

Let's keep a seven day journal in which we will list our observations.

A. Answer the following:

1. An extract from the diary of Frans, an 8 year old boy:

"Today it is Monday. My father had a day off from work. He is planning to take us to Gozo. The last time we went we had a lot of fun. We plan on going swimming."

Which season do you think it was when Frans wrote this in his diary?

2. An extract from the diary of Francienne, a girl in the fourth year of Primary School:

"Today it is Sunday. Mum and dad promised to take us to Buskett for a picnic, weather permitting. I wonder what's going to happen. Yesterday, the weather forecast said it was going to rain heavily today!"

Which season do you think it was when Francienne wrote this in her diary?

3. An extract from the diary of Wigi, a 9 year old boy:

" Today it is Saturday. It has been a month since we went back to school after the summer holidays. I finished my homework in the morning. My mother had some errands at the butcher's and the grocer's. I offered to go on my bike so as to save her some time."

Which season do you think it was?

4. From the diary of Rosemary, a 10 year old girl:

" Today it is Good Friday. Every year we go to one of the Good Friday processions. This year we are going to Zejtun because they have a very good procession there. I charged my camera's batteries this morning because I intend to take some great pictures for my Social Studies project. "

Which season do you think it was when Rosemary wrote this in her diary?
