

G 5.2 INVESTIGATING A FOREIGN COUNTRY

G5.2.3

Comparing the chosen country to the Maltese Islands.

A. Comparing together

Thanks to the profile you created in G5.2.2 and more research, compare the Maltese Islands with the country you researched about.

N.B. 'A' refers to Malta and 'B' refers to the country you researched.

1. Write the names of the countries:

A.

B.

2. The capital city of Malta is Valletta. What is the capital city of the country you researched?

A.

B.

3. Sketch the flags of both countries.

A.

B.

4. Almost half a million people live in Malta. Then for every person that lives in Malta, we find about _____ people living in the foreign country.

5. Mention one thing in which Malta and your chosen country are very similar:

6. Mention one thing (if you find any) in which Malta and your chosen country are different:

7. The Maltese Islands are surrounded by sea. What did you discover about the foreign country on this same subject?

8. Compare the basic geography of the Maltese Islands with the basic geography of the foreign country.

9. The Maltese love football and horse racings. Did you discover something about a sport that is popular with the people of the country you researched?

10. Tourism is very important for the Maltese Islands. What did you discover about tourism in relation to this country?

11. Compare the climate of the two countries.

B. Draw the thing that you liked most from this country.

