

Worksheet S6.3.5

To research monuments and other memories of the Second World War that we find around us.

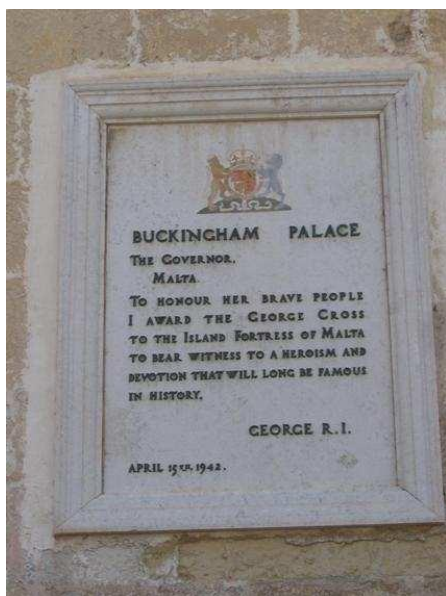

A: Compare the photos with the sentences by writing the number of the photo in the correct box.

2: THE PILLBOXES

1: SHELTERS

3: REMEMBRANCE OF THE GEORGE CROSS

4: THE MONUMENT OF WAR

5: THE MUSEUM OF WAR

6: MONUMENT TO THE VICTIMS OF WAR

	On Remembrance Day, flowers are placed in order to remember the victims of the two world wars.
	Among the most important memories are the George Cross and the airplane Faith .
	This monument is found on the facade of the Grand Masters' Palace.
	In many cities and villages we find a monument that commemorates the victims of war of that locality.
	Although many of them are abandoned, these are the remains of war and should be appreciated.
	Many of them have been restored by Local Councils and therefore, they are accessible to the public.

B: Research.

1. Search for more information about the Second World War in an encyclopedia and visit the various websites on the Internet about World War Two.
2. It is a good idea to visit the National Library and see the old newspapers and photographs from during the war.
3. Another good idea is that together with your family or your class, you visit the War Museum at Fort Saint Elmo, the Maritime Museum in Birgu or in Nadur Gozo, as well as the church of Mosta.
4. In your class, charts can be done about the destruction, poverty and deaths left by war.
5. It would also be a good idea to invite some speakers who have an experience of war because they lived it themselves.
6. Another idea is to do a collage in class by using newspapers about “The Horrors of War”.
