

G 5.3 FISHING AND AQUACULTURE

G5.3.6

Aquaculture.

A. Read and complete this dialogue between Paul and the Fisherman.

Paul, a Maltese boy, meets a fisherman in a village of fishermen.

Paul: What kind of boat do you use to go out in the sea?

Fisherman: _____

Paul: What do you do when there is very bad weather?

Fisherman: _____

Paul: How do you fishermen catch fish?

Fisherman: _____

Paul: Tell me a commonly caught fish in the sea around Malta.

Fisherman: _____

Paul: When we met, you told me that you work part-time as a fisherman.

What does this mean?

Fisherman: _____

Paul: Do you want to ask me some questions yourself now?

Fisherman: Yes, gladly. It seems you are interested in fishing. Have you ever heard of the word AQUACULTURE?

Paul: Yes, of course. Let me tell you what it is. Aquaculture means:

Fisherman: Good job. Can you tell me where we find the Malta Aquaculture Centre?

Paul: _____

Fisherman: Good job Paul. Someday I will take you with me to sea. Take care.

B. The picture shows Saint Lucian's Tower.

Now answer the questions.

1. Near which Maltese village is this tower found?

2. What special activity is held in this tower?

3. Why do think this activity is beneficial for all of us?
